KB Home's Forest Grove community is home to numerous groves of native Live Oaks. For Central Texas homebuyers, these sprawling heritage trees are a distinguishing feature in the neighborhood. In addition to an on-site community park, the Forest Grove neighborhood has a series of walking trails including direct on-site access to the extensive Brushy Creek Regional Trail hiking system.

Forest Grove is conveniently located near main transportation routes IH-35, SH 130 and Hwy. 79, as well as major employers, such as Dell and Emerson Process Management. Residents can also enjoy premium local entertainment and shopping destinations, including the Dell Diamond, Ikea and the Round Rock Premium Outlets.

This new KB neighborhood offers homebuyers their choice of a number of floor plans in a popular, customizable company, Los Angeles-based KB Home was the first homebuilder listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and trades under the ticker symbol "KBH."
