KB Home Names Andy Garrich as Senior Vice President of Land for Its Washington, D.C. Metro Division

Virginia native brings local land acquisition experience to the team

WASHINGTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- KB Home (NYSE: KBH), one of the nation's largest and most recognized homebuilders, today announced that Andy Garrich has been named senior vice president of land acquisition and development for its Washington, D.C. Metro division. In this role, Garrich is responsible for all of the builder's land acquisition activities and the development of new KB Home communities throughout the region.

"We are thrilled to welcome Andy Garrich to the KB Home team," said Jon Adler, president of the Washington, D.C. Metro division. "With his deep knowledge of local market dynamics and extensive land acquisition and development experience, he will be a great asset to our business as we focus on growth opportunities in this region."

Garrich joins KB Home with more than 25 years of land development experience in the Maryland and Virginia markets, and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering from Virginia Tech.

KB Home offers homes throughout the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area that include as many as six bedrooms and range in price from the low-$300,000s to over $1,000,000. KB Home recently opened Autumn Overlook in Ellicott City and its Eastchurch community in Frederick, Maryland.
