Wasyliw assumes his new position at KB Home with more than 15 years in the homebuilding industry, most recently as the Senior Vice President of Finance for the San Antonio division. He holds a Masters of Science in Accounting from Western Michigan University.

"Rob brings considerable experience in continually elevating every aspect of our relationships with customers and effectively leveraging the incredible efficiencies and unique strengths of our business model to drive growth," said Larry Oglesby, regional president for KB Home's Central region. "We are excited to have him leading the strategic direction of our San Antonio operations."

KB Home is currently open for sale in 24 communities located in San Antonio, Boerne, Cibolo, New Braunfels and Universal City. For more information about KB Home's new home neighborhoods, visit www.kbhome.com or call 888-KB-HOMES.

About KB Home

KB Home (NYSE: KBH) is one of the largest homebuilders in the United States, with more than 600,000 homes delivered since our founding in 1957. We operate in 36 markets in eight states, primarily serving first-time and first move-up homebuyers, as well as active adults. We are differentiated in offering customers the ability to personalize what they value most in their home, from choosing their lot, floor plan, and exterior, to selecting design and décor choices in our KB Home Studios. In addition, our industry leadership in sustainability helps to lower the cost of homeownership for our buyers compared to a typical resale home. We take a broad approach to sustainability, encompassing energy efficiency, water conservation, healthier indoor environments, smart home capabilities and waste reduction. KB Home is the first national builder to have earned awards under all of the U.S. EPA's homebuilder programs — ENERGY STAR®, WaterSense® and Indoor airPLUS®.
