Dietz is returning to the Houston market with more than twenty years of service at KB Home, including as the senior vice president of finance for its Houston division and most recently as president of its San Antonio division. He holds a BBA in Accounting from Texas A&M University.

"Brett brings to our Houston division an exceptional depth and breadth of experience executing on KB Home's distinctive customer-centric business model," said Larry Oglesby, KB Home's Central region president. "We are excited to have him extend his outstanding career at KB Home leading the strategic growth of our Houston operations."

KB Home has been building in the Houston region since 1998 and is one of Houston's most active homebuilders, with 24 communities currently open for new home sales. With a number of recent land acquisitions, KB Home is continuing to expand its presence across the Houston market. Several single-family new home communities are planned to debut in late 2018 and early 2019, including Hillsdale Creek, Bryan Crossing and Sunset Grove.

"A combination of favorable economic factors and low housing inventory has made Houston a strong market for us, and these future communities will provide new homeownership opportunities for Houston-area buyers," said Oglesby.

About KB Home

KB Home (NYSE: KBH) is one of the largest homebuilders in the United States, with more than 600,000 homes delivered since our founding in 1957. We operate in 36 markets in eight states, primarily serving first-time and first move-up homebuyers, as well as active adults. We are differentiated in offering customers the ability to personalize what they value most in their home, from choosing their lot, floor plan, and exterior, to selecting design and décor choices in our KB Home Studios. In addition, our industry leadership in sustainability helps to lower the cost of homeownership for our buyers compared to a typical resale home. We take a broad approach to sustainability, encompassing energy efficiency, water conservation, healthier indoor environments, smart home capabilities and waste reduction. KB Home is the first national builder to have earned awards under all of the U.S. EPA's homebuilder programs — ENERGY STAR®, WaterSense® and Indoor airPLUS®.
