KB Home Named to Newsweek's 2025 List of America's Most Responsible Companies

2024-12-04

Company is listed as the highest-ranked national homebuilder and the only one to receive this distinction five years in a row.

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- KB Home (NYSE: KBH), one of the largest and most trusted homebuilders in the U.S., has been named to Newsweek ® 's America's Most Responsible Companies 2025 list. The company is the highest-ranked national homebuilder and the only one to receive this distinction five years in a row. This recognition is presented by Newsweek and Statista, a leading provider of market and consumer data, and can be viewed on Newsweek's website.

"We are truly honored to be recognized once again by Newsweek as one of America's Most Responsible Companies," said Jeffrey Mezger, KB Home's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "For over two decades, KB Home has been building sustainable homes that are more efficient and affordable to operate, and delivering on the enduring promise of the American dream."

America's Most Responsible Companies were selected from an initial pool of over 2,000 public companies and based on publicly available key performance indicators from annual reports, corporate social responsibility (CSR) reports, sustainability reports and corporate citizenship reports, as well as an independent survey of more than 17,000 U.S. residents. The final list recognizes the top 600 most responsible companies in the U.S., spanning 14 industries.
