KB Home Named to Newsweek's 2026 List of America's Most Responsible Companies

2025-12-11

Company is listed as the highest-ranked national homebuilder and the only one to receive this distinction six years in a row.

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- KB Home (NYSE: KBH), one of the largest and most trusted homebuilders in the U.S., has been named to Newsweek®'s America's Most Responsible Companies 2026 list. The company is the highest-ranked national homebuilder and the only one to receive this distinction six years in a row. This recognition is presented by Newsweek and Statista, a leading provider of market and consumer data, and can be viewed on Newsweek's website.

"We are deeply honored to be recognized once again by Newsweek as one of America's Most Responsible Companies," said Jeffrey Mezger, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of KB Home. "We began our sustainability focus over two decades ago and are proud to have led the industry in building high-performance homes that help to lower the total cost of homeownership and sustain the American dream."

America's Most Responsible Companies are selected from an initial pool of over 2,000 public companies and based on more than 30 publicly available key performance indicators (KPI) from annual reports, corporate social responsibility (CSR) reports, sustainability reports and corporate citizenship reports as well as an independent survey of 18,000 U.S. residents. The final list recognizes the top 600 most responsible companies in the U.S., spanning 14 industries.
